

I strongly oppose common ownership of broadcast stations and a daily newspaper in the same market. It places too much influence and power in too few hands.